“Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat” Performance

Heritage Oak Private School will present its version of “Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat” at Servite High School’s Theater March 13 (7:30pm), March 14 (7:30pm), and March 15 (2:00pm & 6:30pm). A highlight of the Heritage Oak school year, this year’s annual production will feature over 80 students in the main cast.

Because Heritage Oak takes a “whole child” approach to education, learning about and participating in the performing arts is highly encouraged. While roughly 15% of the school’s population will perform as part of the main cast, over half of the school’s population has some role in the production through required classroom participation in the ensemble roles.

Many of the students featured in “Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat” got their start as cast members in Heritage Oak’s Summer Children’s Community Musical Theater Arts Program. This summer’s program will commence in a performance of “Alice in Wonderland.” More information as well as applications for the program can be found at www.heritageoak.org.

Heritage Oak is a traditional school appealing to parents who are seeking a proven curriculum and a safe, nurturing environment. Community awareness, academic achievement, and family values are part of its program that focuses on the development of the whole child.

The U.S. Department of Education bestowed its highest honor upon Heritage Oak when it awarded the school the 1998-1999 “Blue Ribbon” award. The “Blue Ribbon”, our Nations most prestigious education award, distinguishes Heritage Oak for its excellence in leadership, teaching, curriculum, student achievement, parent involvement, and community support.
